STILLS AND

Any kind of still in which whisky is produced must be clearly marked with the name of the distillery.

Distillation specifically means the application to the distiller's heat of heat and vapour and distilled to a minimum of 95% alcohol by volume. No other distillation technique may be used.

No part of the spirit may be put into cask for maturation at more than 67% Alcohol By Volume.

CASKS

The spirit must be matured for at least 1 year in natural wood cask.

The cask must be made from natural wood, compressed in any way except in the production of the cask.

The cask may be used in any state, used as virgin, but when they are from used casks they must be modified to meet requirements for the nature of the spirit (e.g. honey combing a barrel end or

MASTHOUSE GRAIN WHISKY - RRP 47,95

This redefines grain whisky.

Made to hero the influence of grains in whisky making; wheat, barley and rye.

A jazz, this is bursting with handsome flavours; sweet and creaminess from wheat, nuttiness from barley, and a touch of rye's herbal spiciness.

The signature long fermentation and careful distillation in the column still means it carries the distillery's signature ultra...
