BLACKS BREWERY & DISTILLERY

Since 2013, Sam and Maudeline have been living their dream, fueled by a shared passion that transformed a simple hobby into a thriving business. It all began when Maudeline gifted Sam a home brewing kit for Valentine's Day, igniting a fervent journey of experimentation and creation. This led to the birth of Blacks, a brewery and distillery with a clear mission: to break free from the monotony of mass-produced beverages by crafting beers and spirits brimming with passion and personality.

The Distillery
In 2015, the duo took a bold step forward by inaugurating their state-of-the-art distillery, marking Ireland's first-ever brewery and distillery under one roof.

Initially, they focused on small-batch production of Irish Poitín, akin to the American moonshine, perfecting the craft with each run. Soon after, they ventured into the gin market, with Maudeline spending countless hours in the R&D lab to develop a rich, bold Irish Gin that would stand out in the crowd.

And what's an Irish distillery without whiskey? Although they started young, unable to produce their own distilled and matured whiskey, Sam and Maudeline cleverly sourced aged whiskey and infused it with their distinctive touch, finishing it within their distillery walls to create something truly unique.

RINGRONE CASTLE

From the Ruin of Battle is born a Beautiful Spirit.

In 1600, Ringrone Castle was held by Spanish forces but was captured by the English during the Siege of Kinsale after a fierce cannon attack.

Perched above the River Bandon, just south of Kinsale, this 13th-century castle was constructed on land granted to Milo de Cogan by Henry II.

Today, the remnants of Ringrone Castle lie just a stone’s throw from our brewery and distillery, inspiring us to create the first whiskey produced entirely in Kinsale.
